HURRAH FOR CIA

Every Citizen Should Be Proud of Agency

CPYRGHT

To The Times:

Recently one of your columnists criticized the Central Intelligence Agency because of its air of secrecy towards the public. Newspapermen unknowingly could sell this country to the Communists for a few articles.

Behind the Iron Curtain, all outside or inside news is censored and all facts concerning defense are omitted except those which they use as moral builders. We should be grateful our military men are standing firm to the newsmen, retaining facts from the public which might undermine this country's defense.

Every citizen should be proud that their tax supported C.I.A. is doing such a fine job.
